Everest Poker is truly an international poker site with players from all parts of Europe, Asia and other areas taking advantage of the Everest Poker software's 16 available languages. Everest Poker thrives on its proprietary software that focuses on giving players plenty of customization features to supplement the poke experience. Everest Poker currently only offers a Windows compatible software package, but Mac users can utilize an emulation program to successfully run Everest Poker's software.

Everest Poker Software

Features

Everest Poker software features plenty of options, so players can customize the poker interface to their liking. For example, 3D player avatars, card animations and the chat box can all be disabled if you need to dedicate every ounce of your computer's resources to multi-table at up to 12 games at a time. Tables can be resized to practically any size or choose from one of the 4 pre-set resolutions. Everest Poker allows players to opt out of registered tournaments any time before the start of the event without being locked-in. Previewing any tournament will automatically bring up a list of available satellite events, particularly useful for players who don't want to pay high buy-in fees.

Differences Between Mac and

PC Everest Poker Downloads

There are no differences between the Mac and PC software packages. Mac users will have to run the PC software package through an emulation program or with the help of the Boot Camp utility. Users who choose to run Everest

Poker through an emulator may experience reliability issues, but this should not be the case for users who run the software on a Windows XP OS with the Mac Boot Camp utility.
